Fall Quarter 2014
- Residual dry matter (RDM) monitoring of campus grasslands
- Propagation of native species for restoration
- Planting and maintenance of native coastal scrub restoration project at Long Marine Lab/Younger Lagoon Reserve (as precipitation allows)
- Native seed collection and processing
- Invasive plant removal

Winter Quarter 2015
- Planting and maintenance of native coastal scrub restoration project at Long Marine Lab/Younger Lagoon Reserve
- Invasive plant removal
- Trail maintenance / erosion control as necessary
- Native seed collection and processing

Spring Quarter 2015
- Maintenance of native coastal scrub restoration project at Long Marine Lab/Younger Lagoon Reserve
- Trail maintenance / erosion control as need
- Monitoring (transect/quadrat) of campus grasslands for species diversity
- Invasive plant removal

Contact:
Bill Reid, 831-459-4680
Email: billreid@ucsc.edu