The Right Livelihood College links faculty & students with ‘Alternative Noble Prize' winners for research and education about proven solutions to the world’s most pressing global problems. RLC Santa Cruz is based at the Institute for Social Transformation

2- and 5- unit interns, and senior project interns, will work in a team to support Right Livelihood College campus events, research projects, and awareness raising campaigns.

For more information visit rightlivelihood.ucsc.edu and rightlivelihoodaward.org
As you visit the websites to learn about the people and social movements who have received the award, please consider if there are particular issues or laureates you’d like to work with.

For questions contact: daveshaw@ucsc.edu